MATT CAMPBELL

HEAD COACH / MT. UNION (2002)
3RD SEASON AT IOWA STATE (11-14)

Matt Campbell, who has an amazing championship pedigree as both a player and coach, was named head football coach at Iowa State University on Nov. 29, 2015.

Campbell initiated his rebuilding plan and laid the foundation of future success in his first season as the head man at Iowa State in 2016.

He implored his team to "Trust The Process," and in year two of the Campbell era, it paid major dividends.

Campbell's 2017 Cyclone squad caught the nation's attention with their drastic improvement, placing Iowa State football into the national rankings and the college football spotlight.

⇨AT IOWA STATE

The 2017 Iowa State football season will go down as one of its best in recent history thanks to Campbell's coaching efforts.

Picked to finish ninth in the Big 12 Conference, the Cyclones capped off their outstanding 2017 campaign with a victory in the AutoZone Liberty Bowl over Memphis, just the fourth bowl win in the history of the program.

Iowa State surged into AP Top-25 poll for the first time since 2005 thanks to a perfect 4-0 mark in the month of October where it defeated two top-5 teams in Oklahoma and TCU.

Prior to the season, Iowa State was 1-56-2 all-time vs. teams ranked in the top-5 of the AP poll, tripling its all-time career total.

The victory over Oklahoma (38-31) in Norman was Iowa State's first-ever win over a top-5 opponent on the road and one of the school's signature triumphs. Iowa State followed up the OU win with a 14-7 victory over No. 4 TCU three weeks later, helping the Cyclones garner their first-ever appearance in the College Football Playoff rankings.

Iowa State finished the 2017 season with an 8-5 overall record and an upper-half finish in the Big 12 at 5-4, matching the school record for conference wins in a season and tallying the second-most overall victories in school history.

Three of ISU's wins were against ranked opponents (Oklahoma, TCU, Memphis) and five were on the road, breaking or equaling school marks in both categories.

Campbell perfected a mix of an opportunistic offense and a stingy defense for its success in 2017. ISU scored over 40 points five times during the season, tying the school record for 40-point games in a season, and set a school record in passing offense, averaging 272.9 yards per game.

Defensively, the Cyclones posted historic numbers, ranking in the top-30 nationally in scoring defense (26th, 20.9) and turnover margin (16th, +10). Iowa State was second in the Big 12 (league games only) in scoring defense (18.9) and total defense (357.2), holding nine of 10 conference opponents to at least 10 points below their season average.

The Cyclone defense ranked 16th nationally in TFL, setting a new season standard with 97 stops behind the line of scrimmage.

Campbell's recipe for success has always been about attention to details, and his 2017 team was the epitome of that. ISU ranked in the top-15 nationally in fewest fumbles lost (1st, 1), fewest turnovers (2nd, 10) and fewest penalties (14th, 4.38).

The Cyclones broke school marks in fewest turnovers and fewest fumbles lost in a season, going nearly the entire year before losing their first fumble, tying the NCAA FBS all-time record along the way.

Campbell was lauded for his efforts in 2017, earning Big 12 Coach of the Year honors. He was also the AFCA Region 4 Coach of the Year.

Campbell's work with the Cyclones in his inaugural season proved he was the right man for the job.

Inheriting a program with depleted numbers on both sides of the ball, the Cyclones displayed gradual improvement throughout the season, as ISU compiled a 3-9 overall mark and a 2-7 record in Big 12 play.

The Iowa State offense thrived under Campbell's leadership in 2016, posting impressive totals which rank high historically. The Cyclones recorded the fourth-best offense in school history in regards to yardage, averaging 421.6 yards per game.

Iowa State's offense was balanced and efficient, boasting a 1,000-yard receiver in All-Big 12 performer Allen Lazard and a rushing attack which featured three players with 500+ yards on the ground, a first in school history.

In his two years at Iowa State, Campbell has mentored five players who have earned First-Team All-Big 12 accolades, including Joel Lanning, who was a First-Team All-American linebacker by the FWAA in his only season playing the position.

Lazard ended his illustrious career as ISU's career leader in receptions (241), receiving yards (3,360) and 100-yard receiving games (12). He is one of only two Cyclone offensive players in school history to earn First-Team All-Big 12 honors multiple times.

⇨AT TOLEDO

Campbell compiled a 35-15 record in four-plus seasons as the head coach at Toledo and led the Rockets to three nine-win seasons. He coached UT in three bowls and his 2015 Rocket team played in the Boca Raton Bowl after being hired at Iowa State. Campbell's winning percentage (.700) is third-best in school history, trailing only Nick Saban (.818, 1990) and Bill Orwig (.762, 1946-47).

He was named the UT head coach in December 2011 (when Tim Beckman left), becoming the youngest head coach in the FBS by three years. Only 16 days after his promotion from offensive coordinator to head coach, Campbell led the Rockets to a 42-41 win over Air Force in the Military Bowl. Interestingly, Campbell coached the bowl game from his accustomed spot in the press box to avoid a game-day distraction. Current Cyclone assistant coach Louis Ayeni handled coaching duties on the sidelines at the bowl game.

The Military Bowl win was a springboard to many more achievements at Toledo.

Campbell's first full season as head coach (2012) included an eight-game winning streak. The Rockets upset No. 18 Cincinnati during the win streak, moved into the nation's Top 25 for the first time in more than a decade and were invited to the Famous Idaho Potato Bowl.

The 2013-14 seasons included 16 wins, shares of the MAC West Division championship both years and the establishment of a nationally respected power rushing attack. Toledo ranked 14th and 12th nationally in rushing offense those seasons. The '14 campaign ended with a 63-44 victory over Arkansas State in the GoDaddy Bowl as tailback Kareem Hunt returned from injury to rush for 271 yards and five TDs.

His 2015 Toledo team – which had to replace five offensive line starters – got the nation's attention in September with a 16-12 upset of 18th-ranked Arkansas. Following that win, the Rockets defeated Iowa State in overtime, their second Power 5 victory in a row. The 2015 Rockets ranked 27th nationally in scoring offense and 28th in scoring defense. They ran the ball (213.2) and stopped the run (115.5) and UT earned the first College Football Playoff ranking in school history.

He was honored as the 2015 MAC Coach of the Year.

⇨WORKING HIS WAY UP

His transition from the field to the sidelines began with a two-year term as a graduate assistant (working with the tight ends) at Bowling Green. Those Falcon teams won the 2003 Motor City Bowl and the 2004 GMAC Bowl.

Campbell returned to his alma mater as offensive coordinator and line coach (2005-06) and Mount Union won two more national titles and registered a 29-1 record. Six players earned All-American accolades under his tutelage, including future NFL receiver Pierre Garcon.

He returned to Division I football for two years (2007-08) as Bowling Green's offensive line coach. Then, at the age of 29, he was named run game coordinator (2009) before promotion to offensive coordinator (2010-11) at Toledo.

⇨PERSONAL

Campbell's belief system is grounded in building relationships. He has been referred to as a players' coach often. Building relationships is at the foundation of his recruiting prowess. Rivals.com named him a "top recruiter" in 2011 and his last three classes were ranked first or second in the MAC.

His first two Iowa State recruiting classes rank among the best in school history, including the 2017 group, which was rated No. 40 nationally by Rivals, the highest by the recruiting service since 2004. The 2017 Cyclone newcomers posted a 247Sports composite ranking of .8427, the highest composite score since 2007 when the service began rating classes.

Campbell and his wife (Erica) have four young children: Kaetlyn, Isabella, Rudy and Rocco. Campbell earned a bachelor's degree in history from Mount Union in 2002.
